

Kansas Dressage and Eventing Association (KDEA)
2020-2021 Membership Form (Membership year is 12/1/2020 to 11/30/2021)

KDEA serves the South Central Kansas Dressage and Eventing community by providing educational, social, and competitive opportunities which promote a harmonious partnership between horse and rider.

Benefits of Membership:

E-Newsletter, Schooling shows, educational clinics, annual awards program, and more! KDEA is a USDF Group Member Organization (GMO). All KDEA members are automatically USDF GMO members. A portion of your KDEA dues goes directly to USDF. You will receive the monthly publication, "USDF Connection" and will be able to log into E-Trak, the USDF's digital library of articles, videos, and training tips. You are also eligible to compete in USDF recognized shows, earn USDF University Credit, and can participate in Rider Award programs through the USDF. Go to www.usdf.org for more information. The KDEA website is www.kdea.org.

Membership Types:

- Individual ($35)
- Junior under 14 years old ($30)
- Each Additional Family Member ($10)

Awards Program:

The KDEA Awards program now has a specific sign-up form available on the website. Check out the website at www.kdea.org for more information! There are great year-end awards! Don't miss out! You must sign up on a separate form to qualify!

Volunteer Requirement:

To be eligible for year-end rider and horse awards, there is a minimum volunteer requirement. There are numerous opportunities to get in your tasks, especially in spring and summer. Check out the website (www.kdea.org) for info!
